

Rick Crawford represents the views and values of the First Congressional District!

Rick Crawford is someone who understands that the First Congressional District citizens are some of the best in the United States. Rick knows that farming is vital to our survival and that conservative values should be taught to our children. Rick is pro-gun, pro-life, and pro-traditional marriage. Rick Crawford is running for United States Congress and needs your help to take fair representation of the First Congressional District to Washington D.C.

Rick Crawford is a United States Army veteran. During Rick's service, he advanced to the rank of Sergeant and was a bomb disposal technician. Rick has earned numerous medals for service in the U.S. and Southwest Asia and has had the privilege of serving on U.S. Secret Service security details supporting presidents Ronald Reagan and George Bush among other U.S. and foreign dignitaries.

After leaving the military, Rick Crawford graduated from Arkansas State University in 1996 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Business and Economics. During his time as a student at ASU, Rick was also a professional rodeo announcer, an activity he continued after graduation. He announced the International Finals Rodeo telecast in 1997 and 1998 on the Outdoor Life Network. He was named Announcer of the Year by the National Federation of Professional Bull-riders in 1996, 1997 and 1998.

Since graduation, Rick's career has been primarily focused on agri-communications. He has been a news anchor and agri-reporter on KAIT-TV in Jonesboro, Farm Director on KFIN-FM in Jonesboro and producer/anchor of the syndicated Delta Farm Roundup TV show airing in Cape Girardeau, Missouri; Jonesboro, Arkansas; and Greenville, Mississippi. He now owns and operates the AgWatch Network – a farm news network heard on 39 radio stations in Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, Mississippi and Kentucky as well as TV stations in Little Rock and Jonesboro.

Rick and his wife Stacy - also an ASU Alumnus - live in Jonesboro. They have two children – four-year-old Will and 18-month-old Delaney and they all would appreciate your vote!
