LITTLE ROCK, AR – The Republican Party of Arkansas welcomed their new National Committeewoman Mindy McAlindon this week. Elected during the June 2021 State Committee Meeting, McAlindon began work as Committeewoman on July 1, 2021.

“We are so thrilled to have Mindy joining the Party in this capacity,” said RPA Chairwoman Jonelle Fulmer. “Mindy has been a contributor to the mission of the Party in Arkansas for many years in a variety of roles, and we have no doubt that she will lead us to further success.”

McAlindon previously served on the RPA State Executive Board as Finance Chair and Deputy Treasurer and was a two-time Arkansas delegate or alternate for the Republican National Convention. She has also served as Secretary of the Benton County Republican Committee and volunteered with the Arkansas Federation of Republican Women.

McAlindon has undergraduate degrees in engineering, economics, and mathematics from Vanderbilt University and an M.B.A. from Indiana University. As a brand and marketing strategist, she has worked with some of the strongest consumer brands, Fortune 100 companies, and nonprofits. She and her husband, Lance, have four children and call Benton County home.
