Republican Party of Arkansas Honors Searcy Republican with Second Congressional District Award

LITTLE ROCK, Ark – Charlann Reely of Searcy is a beloved figure in Arkansas and a hard-working member of the White County Republican Committee. A grassroots campaigner at heart, she has dedicated many years to the Republican Party of Arkansas' movement in the state.

Mrs. Reely is credited with serving as the Chairwoman for White County for several terms on several different occasions. She has served as a past President the White County Republican Women's Club, State Committeewoman, member of the Platform Committee, and an organizer for countless Lincoln Day Dinners. Mrs. Reely has also had the honor of being a delegate to several Republican national conventions.

On Friday evening, Mrs. Reely was recognized at the annual Reagan Rockefeller Dinner hosted by the Republican Party of Arkansas for years of dedicated work and contribution to grow the party in her district. She was therefore selected for the Ed Bethune Party Builder Award for the Second Congressional District. The award was presented to her by District Representative John Nabholz, Congressman French Hill, Former Congressman Ed Bethune, State Chairman Doyle Webb, and Governor Asa Hutchinson.

The award is named after Congressman Ed Bethune, who served in the U.S. House of Representatives as the first Republican Arkansan in 104 years to hold that seat. He is also one of the early builders of the modern Republican Party of Arkansas.
